

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Vern Laidlaw and David James for details of their visits to Ambon after the war and for Vern's details of the forming of the 10th Field Ambulance (A.I.F.) Association.

Len Martin for particulars of early militia training days and sketch by Alf Phillips.

Gwen Bryan for newspaper cuttings of the letter Don Hiddleston wrote to the "Sun" and photographs of their wedding.

The State Library of Victoria and the Medical Library of the University of Melbourne for the use of their facilities.

Australian Archives, Melbourne and Brisbane for Sir William Webb's report on Japanese atrocities including the murder of two Missionary sisters and for details of Australian War Memorial photos.

Phil Aylwin's information regarding Neil Douglas' M.B.E. and Don Ludlam for similar details of artist Ron Crawford, Judith Haddow for loan of her brother John Osborne's sketches drawn during the war.

Lloyd Stuart for story of the small detachment who travelled to New Guinea on the Jessie Applegate.

Mrs Heather McKenzie for photograph of the late Lieut. Col. S.A. McKenzie.

Lastly thank you to all those who have written letters, supplied photographs, telephoned or spoken to me and especially all contributors to the Tenth Tit-Bits whose letters or information I have been able to use.
